A LAMB IN WOLF'S CLOTHING KISSES SWEETER

Quiet League!

12 ISSUE 04

Modern Divination is a culmination of things I love to read about in books: magic, romance, tea, and the hopeful, human trait of seeking wonder in the mundane. The fantasy genre allows me to examine what it means for two people on the fringe of different identities to exist in both spaces at once and connect with one another through a lens of distortion. On the surface, my books are about some stubborn collegiate witches who make the startling realization that they ought to kiss each other; but mostly, they're about the blurred line between two different worlds and the people who feel like they don't truly belong to either.

Modern Divination is slated for a January 2023 release date. It is the first in a series, with Book Two drafting in progress.

Isabel Agajanian (they/she) is a fiction writer and illustrator working out of Tampa, FL. They spend a gratuitous percentage of the writing process in conversation with their cat, Mosse.

ORLANDO GIRLS ROCK CAMP

Orlando Girls Rock Camp is a place filled to the brim with "Yes You Can" attitude. Originally Rock 'n' Roll Camp for Girls Central Florida, Founding members Mary and Ginny were volunteers with the original organization for three summers. After going on Hiatus for four years, Orlando Girls Rock Camp came to life. Sourcing volunteers from fellow female musicians and artists, this team of crucial empowerment and knowledge came together. Orlando Girls Rock Camp is here to help girls, non-binary youth, and women build self-esteem through music creation and performance, provide music and art based workshops, and create leadership opportunities for teens and women by cultivating a supportive community of peers and mentors that encourage social change and the development of life skills. The weeklong camp not only helped campers start their own band, write original songs, and perform at the end of the week in a showcase hosted by Will's Pub, but also incorporated art workshops, jewelry making, and beyond.

What's next for Orlando Girls Rock Camp? A 2023 ladies Rock Camp early next year! This will be the third ladies Rock Camp. They hope to eventually grow into a full time after school program with a space where kids can play music and have a safe space to hang out after school. We would love to offer our program year-round.

During our visit graciously offered by the leaders of the camp, we truly were overwhelmed at how loving and giving this group is. There's something special going on here that so many more need to know about. And you can be a part of it! You don't need to be a musician to help. Orlando Girls Rock Camp needs assistance with art, Zine making, Screen Printing, feeding people, cleaning up, and tons more. Do you know how to write grants? Come help us! Do you like promoting events? Are you looking for a rad group of people to hang out with? Come hang out with us! Visit orlandogirlsrock.org for more information on how to volunteer.

Orlando Girls Rock Camp is made possible by board members Mary B., "Machine Gun" Kristin, Emily L., Emily F. along with volunteers Gina, Jordan, Amy, Kate, Zandi, Amanda, Sabra, Annie, Trysten, Kiana, Risa, Jo, Kira, and many more.

Quiet League!

by Doe

The latest department of Doe is here. Allow us to introduce you to the first collection of Quiet League Atelier by Doe. Wearable reimaginings focused on accessible luxury through exclusivity, stewarding resources through using existing pieces from a past life, and creating beauty for everyone through eliminating gender and arbitrary sizing.

All Quiet League pieces are genderless, organized by measurements, one of one exclusive pieces, and created using existing items and materials wherever possible.

Quiet League!

Reimagined especially for you. It's all for you. Creamed corn with a silver spoon. By Doe.

This debut collection is deeply rooted in romanticizing our growing up in the in-between space within classes in America. Instead of keeping up with the joneses, whoever they are, sweetening the the tv dinners and clearance racks.

Creamed corn with a silver spoon. For a brief moment being reminded that the American dream will always be just beyond our horizon, if they get their way. But they won't. Welcome to Quiet League!
